

DELAFIELD CO-OP MARKET NEWSLETTER

A co-op (cooperative) is an organization that is run by and exists for its members. West End residents can join the Delafield Co-op Market for free; other residents can join for $60.

Welcome Back, Patty

Patty has been part of the Co-Op Market since it opened. People are particularly interested in purchasing fresh fruits and vegetables. She encourages all Co-Op members to shop regularly and would like to invite people who haven't visited the Co-Op just to come in and check it out! Her favorite product is the Amish Microwave Popcorn.

What's in season?

We currently have fresh Asparagus from Peggy Gray's Farm Fresh Asparagus -- easy to sauté with some olive oil and butter. We look forward to stocking fresh tomatoes, salad greens, and other produce!

Teacher Appreciation Gift Bags!

Call ahead and we can get it ready! Gift certificates and memberships also available.

(270) 782-1263

Time for strawberries

We have strawberries that are hand picked by the owners of Barren River Berries here in Bowling Green.

Fried Green Tomatoes

https://www.allrecipes.com/recipe/232360 /easy-southern-fried-green-tomatoes/

This recipe calls for 1 cup cornmeal, 1 cup flour, 2 lbs of green tomatoes, and cooking oil. Slice, bread, fry, and enjoy! Mmmm....

Participate in our Spring survey!

You can have books from any branch in the library sent to our satellite branch? *Now you can purchase your produce and pick up/drop off your library books*. Yes, please! We have been featuring a different children't story several times a month and provide a QR code with links to read-alouds and ways to connect the story to learning goals.

Be on the look out...

for news about Saturday hours and home delivery!

Coffee

Wednesdays 9:30-10:30 am Community Room

Neighborhood Meetings

1st and 3rd Wednesday, 1-2 pm Conference Room

Library Hours

T-W, 9-4 pm Th, 9-6 F 9-12:30 Closed 12:30-1:30

Located at HOTEL INC, 1005 Boatlanding Road